Skills: Physical stamina, ability to work outdoors in various weather conditions, reliability, attention to detail, capacity to follow verbal instructions, and basic time management.

Responsibilities: Planting, fertilizing, thinning, and harvesting crops (including row and orchard crops), sorting, weighing, and packing fruit and vegetables at the farm, loading and unloading supplies and produce, cleaning work areas and equipment, and assisting with general farm maintenance.

Description:

Maple Leaf Agri-Farms is seeking dedicated and hardworking individuals for the position of Harvesting Labourer to support our agricultural operations in various regions across Canada. This role is a physically demanding but rewarding opportunity, ideal for candidates who are comfortable with manual labour and committed to seasonal farm work. We welcome applications from lower-level or somewhat experienced candidates who are eager to contribute to the Canadian agriculture sector.

The successful candidates will be responsible for a range of essential farm duties, primarily focused on the harvesting and preparation of our produce. This often involves working long hours, especially during peak season, and performing repetitive tasks while standing or bending.
