dedicated and enthusiastic candidates for the position of Hotel Tea Maker. This role is crucial to enhancing our guests' experience by providing high-quality, perfectly brewed tea service in our hotel's café or lounge. We are looking for individuals who are either starting their career in hospitality or have some foundational experience and a genuine passion for guest service and attention to detail.

Your daily tasks will include brewing different varieties of teas, ensuring consistency in taste and presentation, and maintaining a clean and welcoming service environment. You will be an integral part of the Food & Beverage team, contributing to the smooth operation of our service areas.

To apply for this opportunity, candidates must ensure they possess the necessary qualifications and experience as detailed above. The application process requires submitting a comprehensive CV and a cover letter detailing your relevant experience and why you are interested in working in Norway's hospitality sector.
