Description: Southern Cross Hospitality Group is looking for dedicated individuals to join our team in Australia. This role focuses on overseeing the operational success of our regional and metropolitan locations. We are targeting both lower-level managers seeking growth and experienced hospitality professionals looking to transition their skills into the Australian market. This position requires a strong commitment to service excellence and the ability to lead a diverse team in a fast-paced environment.

Regarding the legal requirements for working in Australia, it is important to understand that we are an information provider and not a registered migration agent or legal authority. We do not issue visas or guarantee visa approval. Our role is to provide candidates with the necessary details and resources to navigate the Australian immigration process independently.
